A library card is your child's ticket to academic achievement

BERKLEY, MI (September 3, 2014) – Every parent wants their child to succeed, and one of the simplest ways you can ensure your child's academic success is by making a quick trip to the library. September is Library Card Sign-up Month, a time when the Berkley Public Library joins with the American Library Association and public libraries nationwide to make sure that every student has the most important school supply of all – a free library card.

Resources at the Berkley Public Library are available to anyone who has a library card. Students can turn to the library for materials, programs and services that support academic achievement.

“Our library provides all types of students a welcoming atmosphere where they can explore, discover and create,” says Matt Church, Library Director. “Students learn in a variety of ways, thanks to the resources available at the library we can meet the needs of all ages and types of learners. Whether that is through homework help, programs or access print and e-books, the library has something for everyone – all with a free library card. It is for these reasons that a library card is most important school supply of all.”

For more information on how to sign up for a library card, visit the Berkley Public Library at 3155 Coolidge Highway in Berkley, call 248-658-3440 or visit www.berkley.lib.mi.us.
