Early Literacy Station added to Berkley Public Library

BERKLEY, MI (March 23, 2015) – Berkley Public Library announces the acquisition of the Early Literacy Station, a comprehensive, turnkey educational solution loaded with over 70 educational software programs for kids ages 2–8. The Early Literacy Station was generously donated by the Friends of the Berkley Public Library.

The Early Literacy Station offers children a safe, standalone computer that is age-appropriate, engaging, and academically relevant for children. It is designed to support school readiness and early education while making learning exciting and engaging.

The early learning applications on the Early Literacy Station span every curriculum area: reading, language arts, math, science, STEM, social studies, writing, graphic arts, typing, music, and more.

AWE's Early Literacy Station educational software content includes:

- La Casa de Dora
- SpongeBob SquarePants Typing
- Giggles Kids My Musical World/ABCs and 123s
- Kid Pix 3D
- Math Doodles
- Sesame Street
- Know Your USA
- Miss Humblebee's Academy
- Wonderful ebooks
- Speakaboos interactive storybooks
- World of Goo

The Early Literacy Station has an imaginative interface that encourages exploration by readers and pre-readers alike. Since it is a self-contained computer, the need for adult intervention and technical support is greatly minimized.

“The Early Literacy Station is an invaluable resource for our toddlers to 5th grade students,” says Matt Church, Library Director. “We’re grateful to the Friends for donating such a dynamic tool to the library for kids to enjoy.”

The Berkley Public Library is located at 3155 Coolidge Highway in Berkley. For additional information, call 248-658-3440 or visit www.berkley.lib.mi.us.
