April programs for adults at the Berkley Public Library

BERKLEY, MI (April 1, 2015) – The following programs for adults will take place at the Berkley Public Library in April.

Origami Club at Berkley Library

Monday, April 6 from 5:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

If you're interested in origami or are a seasoned folder, stop by the library's new origami club! This club provides an opportunity to learn and explore with like-minded individuals. The club meets the first Monday of every month. Please call 248-658-3440 or stop by the Adult reference desk to register for this free program.

Home Dreams: When to Renovate, Move On or Just Start Over

Monday, April 13 at 6:30 p.m.

Ever looked around your house and thought it could be a great place if you could just (fill in the blank)? Architects are uniquely suited to explore your dreams and visions for a fantastic home. Robert Clarke, from the American Institute of Architects (AIA) Speakers Bureau, will provide you with basic benchmarks to consider when evaluating the feasibility of your dream home. Along the way he will show wonderful examples of completed projects and their unique stories of how they got started. Please call 248-658-3440 or stop by the Adult reference desk to register for this free program.

Re-think Social Security

Tuesday, April 21 at 2:00 p.m.

Do you ever wonder when you should start receiving Social Security? Or, how you can get the most out of your Social Security benefits? Join H. Brock Seibold from Vibe Credit Union as he answers these questions and more. This seminar is offering during Money Smart Week and is suggested for ages 45 and older. Please call 248-658-3440 or stop by the Adult reference desk to register for this free program.

The Berkley Public Library is located at 3155 Coolidge Highway in Berkley. For additional information, call 248-658-3440 or visit www.berkley.lib.mi.us. You can find us on Facebook at www.facebook.com/BerkleyPublicLibrary.
