February programs at the Berkley Public Library

BERKLEY, MI (February 9, 2016) – Several programs will be taking place at the Berkley Public Library in February.

Friends of the Library Bake Sale

Saturday, February 13 from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

The Friends of the Library will be selling an assortment of delicious treats to celebrate Valentine's Day. Proceeds from the bake sale will help support the library's programs and services.

ADULTS

Tibetan Throat Singing and Ancient Himalayan Singing Bowls

Wednesday, February 17 at 6:30 p.m.

Presented by Kate Hart, vocalist and voice coach

This is an opportunity to learn about Tibetan throat singing, along with experiencing and playing ancient Himalayan singing bowls from the 15th and 16th century. The Tibetans are one of the only cultures on earth that cultivate this most extraordinary vocal ability. You'll even have a chance to try it yourself! To register, visit <http://goo.gl/2oHwbP> or call 248-658-3440.

TEEN

Teen Movies at the Library

Get out of the house during Mid-Winter Break! We've got TWO movies running on Thursday, February 18. Pizza and pop will be served between the movies. Join us for one or both!
